Bad Weather

As we have entered into our winter season, we would like to remind you we generally don't cancel classes, however, if in doubt, any cancellation will be posted on our website by 3:00 pm for weekday classes, 8:00am for weekend classes (under the weather section) and there will be a message on the studio answering machine stating if classes are cancelled.

Young Students

To parents of young dancers, please ensure they use the washroom BEFORE coming into class. This has been an issue over the past couple of months and it is very disruptive during class time.

Summer Classes and Camps

Back by popular demand we will once again be holding summer camps and classes. Summer schedule and registration information will be given out in late March.
